

AFS Spectrometer Procurement

Overview

Umweltbundesamt, Referat Z 1. 5, Zentrale Vergabestelle Germany has Released a tender for Atomic Fluorescence Spectrometer (Afs) in laboratory equipment and services. The technology relies on the principle of atomic. The AFS market is expanding as demand rises for precise, efficient analytical methods across pharmaceuticals, environmental monitoring, and food safety. AFS offers high sensitivity and selectivity to detect trace metals and non-metals, driving adoption in labs aiming for accurate results. Different types of atomic fluorescence spectrometers are designed to optimize performance for. According to QYResearch's new survey, global Atomic Fluorescence Spectrometer (AFS) market is projected to reach US$ million in 2029, increasing from US$ million in 2022, with the CAGR of % during the period of 2023 to 2029.
