

Ethiopia Aluminum Alloy Straight-Through Cable Tray Price

Article Overview

Aluminum alloy straight-through cable trays in Ethiopia are available at competitive, customizable prices, typically influenced by material grade, dimensions, and supplier location.

Market Overview

Ethiopia's cable tray market is growing rapidly due to infrastructure projects, industrial parks, and energy developments like the Grand Ethiopian Renaissance Dam, with Addis Ababa accounting for nearly 45% of demand . Aluminum trays are preferred for their lightweight, corrosion-resistant properties, and ease of installation compared to steel trays . Local manufacturers in Addis Ababa, such as NAHMA Precision Metal Products, offer high-quality ladder and perforated cable trays with custom solutions .

Pricing Factors

The price of aluminum alloy straight-through cable trays depends on several factors:

- Material grade: Higher-grade aluminum alloys cost more but offer better durability and corrosion resistance .
- Dimensions: Length, width, height, and thickness directly affect cost .
- Customization: Modular or specialized trays for industrial or telecom applications may increase price .
