

How much does a large bundle of optical fiber cable weigh

Overview

They can weigh between 60 to 200 kg per kilometer (39.7 to 132 pounds per 1000 feet), depending on the design and materials used. However, some general guidelines can provide a rough estimate: Indoor Fiber Optic Cables: These are typically lighter as they require less protection. Indoor cables can weigh anywhere from 10 to 30 kg per. Estimate cable bundle weight, tray load per foot, spool gross weight, and metric equivalents from cable type, outside diameter, density, count, length, slack, and reel tare. Imperial uses inches, feet, lb/ft, lb. Cable outside diameter (in) Use the real. The total weight of a fiber optic cable drum includes both the empty drum structure and the cable wound around it. This is a critical factor in logistics, handling, and safety planning. Of course the cable is much lighter than copper but much heavier than you are used to with fiber - it weighs 752 kg/km or about 1/2 pound per foot. Fiber trunks that are less than 125' are individually packaged in.
