

Israel Positive Pressure Distribution Box Company

Article Overview

AZMA Ltd. and Mendelson Ltd. are leading Israeli companies that supply high-pressure and distribution equipment suitable for positive pressure distribution applications.

AZMA Ltd.

Founded in 1970, AZMA Ltd. specializes in importing and marketing hydraulic and pneumatic equipment, including high-pressure pipes, fittings, adapters, and valves. They serve industries such as military, chemical, food, hi-tech, and heavy equipment systems. AZMA maintains a large stock of steel, stainless steel, brass, and Teflon components, as well as hydraulic and pneumatic valves, which can be used in positive pressure distribution systems. They are ISO 9001:2015 certified and supply to major clients like RAFAEL, Israel Aircraft Industries, and Intel (Web result).

Mendelson Ltd.

Mendelson Ltd. is Israel's largest distributor in the flow industries, offering a wide range of industrial pipes, fittings, valves, pumps, and automation products. They provide custom solutions, engineering, installation, and follow-up services, making them a strong candidate for sourcing or designing positive pressure distribution boxes. Their extensive inventory and fast delivery (within 24 hours) support industrial and commercial applications (Web result).
