“The. LUM Retail Lighting Group™ is a leading provider of optical interior lighting designs and illumination products. LUM is the optical industry's complete resource from design to delivery. Proper lighting and ceiling designs are essential in retail environments, and should be given as much. The LUMiSizer is an evolutionary development based on the LUMiFuge platform with some significant additional capabilities that instantaneously measures the extinction (space- and time-resolved) of the transmitted light across the entire length of your sample using the STEP-Technology®. Because of. LUM GmbH was founded in 1994 by the Managing Director Prof. Dietmar Lerche as an innovative development-, production- and service corporation. The headquarters are located in Berlin-Adlershof, Germany. They are the foundation for providing general lighting, illumination of specific work areas and directing light where it is needed to create drama in the space. The LUM Retail Lighting Group™ provides solutions that.
