

Malawi electrical distribution box material manufacturer

Article Overview

Plastic and metal electrical distribution boxes in Malawi are available from local manufacturers and distributors, with plastic being the most commonly supplied material.

Local Manufacturers and Suppliers

- Plastic Distribution Boxes
- Malawi has manufacturers and suppliers specializing in plastic distribution boxes, which are widely used for residential and commercial electrical installations. These boxes are durable, lightweight, and resistant to corrosion, making them suitable for local conditions. You can connect with these suppliers through platforms like ExportHub, which lists verified manufacturers ready to serve Malawi-based clients .
- Electra Sales
- Electra Sales is one of Malawi's largest electrical companies, with over 42 years of experience. They distribute a wide range of electrical products, including distribution boards and panels, sourced from high-quality brands. While they primarily act as distributors, they can provide guidance on sourcing both plastic and metal distribution boxes .
- Lilongwe Electrical Equipment Suppliers
- In Lilongwe, the capital, suppliers offer electrical panels and distribution boards suitable for industrial, commercial, and residential use. These suppliers provide boxes made from plastic and metal, designed to accommodate circuit breakers, switches, and meters safely .
